ABOUT JANET MYERS, FRANCISCAN ESTATE

Traveling a wine road wasn't Janet's original path. In what now seems like another life, she gave up her pursuit of a doctorate in Biological Anthropology to move to London, where she worked in the restaurant industry. Living above a wine shop, she enjoyed sampling the wares of her downstairs neighbor and decided to learn about wine production. "When I realized that this was an industry that combined science and agriculture—which is my family's background—I enrolled at UC Davis and haven't looked back." After graduating from UC Davis with a Master's in Enology, she pursued harvest abroad to enrich her experience. Wanting to connect to her roots by spending time in Italy, her mother's ancestral home country, Janet turned to the Antinori winemaker in Italy, who offered her a harvest internship at the Santa Cristina Estate in Chianti.

Before coming to Franciscan Estate in August of 2003 as Associate Winemaker, Janet enjoyed stints in Australia's Margaret River region and at big Cabernet producers Beaulieu Vineyard, Stag's Leap Wine Cellars and Louis Martini Winery. Janet was promoted to Director of Winemaking of Franciscan Estate and Mt Veeder in August 2005. Join Janet as you journey along the Enchanting Rhine on the beautiful AmaStella.

ABOUT GARY LIEBERSTEIN, THE TRAVEL ADDICTION AGENCY

This cruise will be co-hosted by retired Napa County District Attorney Gary Lieberstein, owner and operator of the Travel Addiction Agency and also a member of Aldea's Advisory Board and a longtime advocate for mental health services.

Lieberstein, after 31 years in prosecution, has found that creating travel experiences for his friends is much more fun than sending people to prison.
