

THE CULTURE AND PROCESS OF FOSTER YOUTH IN & OUT OF HOME PLACEMENT FOR PROFESSIONALS WORKING WITH FOSTER YOUTH AND THEIR FAMILIES

ZOOM TRAINING:

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4TH, 2022

9:00 AM TO 12:00 PM

COST: FREE

TRAINING CONTENT:

An engaging lecture with a balance of information and case examples that will serve as a bridge to integrate theory into strategies of minimizing the traumatic experience of out of home placement for children as well as how to control for secondary trauma in supporting the child's mental health following transitions.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

1. Orient participants on the current data and statistics surrounding children in out of home placement.
2. Answer why children are removed from their parent's/primary caregiver's care.
3. Explain the removal process itself, to where the child may go from the moment of removal, and who is on the child's team.
4. Learn how to work with and support a child that has been removed from their parent's care.
