

WORKING WITH TEENS IN FOSTER CARE

INTERACTIVE ZOOM TRAINING:
JANUARY 18, 2022
1:00 PM - 3:00 PM
COST: FREE

TRAINING CONTENT:

There are so many reasons why accepting to care for a foster youth in their teenage years is a rewarding experience! Participants who come to this training will have an increased capacity to understand and empathize with what teens may have experienced in their lives and will better understand how that manifests itself while in care. Participants will leave the training with tools to work with teenagers to help them succeed in their final years in care. Take this training if you are thinking of making a difference in the life of young adult, helping to coach them to make positive, life-altering choices and step more confidently along the path to adulthood.

Trainer: Heather Lingford

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

This training is appropriate for current foster parents and anyone interested in becoming a foster parent.
